STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1908.

NO. 57.

HIGHLAND.

Labor Day was observed by the schools of Misses Maud Hatfield and Fannie Young.

A girl baby has arrived at the home of Ollie Vanhook. Mrs. C. M. Young has been quite sick.

Rev. P. H. Ebright has been engaged in holding his last revival service for the year at the new Methodist church during the last 10 days. Eld. J. M. Long has returned from Pulaski, where he was engaged in a meeting. Miss Antoinette Fletcher, the organist during the first week of the meeting, has returned to Science Hill.

Miss Zora Baugh and John H. Young left Monday to attend Union College, Barbourville. Miss Rosa Meier, of Louisville, and Jake Meier and wife, of Somerset, spent several days with their parents here. John Spire and daughters, Mesdames Hutchison and Hyatt, attended the fair at Somerset. Mrs. E. J. Mills and son, Jack, have returned from a visit to relatives at Somerset. Misses Grace Young and Annie Butt have entered school at Stanford.

Mrs. C. M. Young desires to thank in behalf of the building committee of the new Methodist church recently dedicated, the editor for his manly kind words and notices in his worthy paper from time to time, and also the many persons in Somerset, Science Hill, Danville, Junction City, Stanford, Crab Orchard, Moreland, Kingsville and Waynesburg and other parts of the county who so liberally donated to the church, and also for their presence at the dedicatory services. Also to Mr. E. G. Baugh for his untiring efforts and energy in staying with the work until it was completed.

HUBBLE.

Misses Nannie Adams and Bettie Walter are attending the State fair. R. L. McKechnie has returned to Tampa, Fla., after a visit to his parents here. R. L. Hubble is in Louisville this week. Mrs. J. A. Hammond is visiting relatives in Casey and Russell counties.

Hubble & Gooch sold some stock ewes to M. B. Eabanks at $4.50 B. W. Givens sold his mixed hay to Banks Hudson at $9 per ton. Jess Fox bought some hogs in this community at 5¢. J. A. Hammond has already placed a car-load of fertilizer among the wheat growers here.

After a brief illness of typhoid fever Miss Lucetia Underwood passed to her reward last Saturday night. She was a devout member of the Christian church and a most excellent woman. Her taking away shows the importance of being prepared, as she was, to answer the final summons.

Tickling or dry Coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

A Washington special says: Charles Cottrell, of the staff of the Associated Press in this city, who has been with Mr. Bryan in his travels through the West since the Denver Convention, said: "After witnessing the enthusiasm with which the Democratic candidate was received throughout the Middle West I am of the opinion that this fall will see a landslide for Bryan."

"I believe Bryan and Kern will not only carry Ohio and Indiana," Cottrell is quoted as saying, "but I believe he will carry Iowa by a safe majority."

Mr. Cottrell is about as nearly devoid of personal political opinions as any veteran newspaper man in political work can be.

The bi-partisan Board of Control for Charitable Institutions seems to be working out all right in so far as it enables members of both political parties to get a slice of the pie. There is no other visible reform.—Bowling Green Messenger.

Pink Pain Tablets—Dr. Shoop's—stop Headache, womanly pains, any pain, anywhere, in 20 minutes sure. Formula on the 25c. box. Ask your druggist or doctor about this formula—it's fine. Penny's Drug Store.

ZACK T. MILLER.

Its forenoon street parade is a prompt and positive feature of the daily life of the 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which will be here on Monday, Sept. 21. If you are not acquainted with the fame, resources, originality and genius of the Miller Brothers, they are content for you to base your conclusions upon the pageant which will traverse the principal thoroughfares of the city in the morning. It is a worthy and fitting introduction to the stirring performance which follows at the show grounds.

From the very nature and character of the 101 Ranch amusement undertaking, this parade is a radical departure in constituents and conduct from anything ever witnessed before. There is no vaudeville, no circus, no theatrics, no make-believe and no disguise in the make-up of this typical Western institution. The parade, thus, has nothing in common with the glittering and spangled figures and features which are annually familiar here.

Every person and part of the 101 Ranch parade is of and from the land of cattle, corals and coyotes. Every person is a figure of unquestioned repute in the Western world of sturdy and supple physical endeavor. Every man is an admitted champion with lariat, horse or fire-arms or in other departments of ranch routine. Every girl is a sun-tanned product of the range-land, whose beauty and youth seem to cry out against her hazardous exploits.

Zack T. Miller, one of the three Miller brothers, who own and operate the great 101 Ranch, leads the line, and behind him is a living narrative of the picturesque and spectacular West of past and present. Every manner and type of Western vehicle and every appliance, appurtenance and paraphernalia of the ranch is displayed. There are emigrant wagons, prairie schooners, round-up wagons and stage coaches, every one of which has done service over the prairie trails. Nobody walks in the cattle country and nobody, appropriately, walks in the parade of the 101 Ranch Show.

The horses are an interesting study. There are every kind and every size—a $5,000 Arabian imported steed ridden by Mr. Miller, the trained cowhorse of the cowboy, the jaunty equine pet of the Wild West girl, the spotted, four-footed pride of the Indian, the Shetland pony, dear to the hearts of the little ones, and the "bucking" desperado, who looks lamb-like, but is full of hatred toward mankind.

The Indians form a gorgeous and spectacular phalanx in the procession. They paint themselves and their horses with all the colors and in all the designs of frenzied savage fancy. Wrinkled chiefs, warriors with black records of warfare against the whites, patient squaws and their unremonstrating papooses, and belles and beauties of the wigwam are in the line. They are clad in beads, buckskin, moccasins, feathers and blankets. Many tribes are represented in their ranks. It is the first pilgrimage among the whites of these rude red-skin denizens of prairie and forest and they are as much amazed, amused and interested as the palefaces who watch them pass.

The tom-toms and trumpets of the Indians mingle with the brazen harmony of three bands, the shrill clamor of a fife and drum corps, the clear notes of buglers and the vociferous call of the inevitable steam calliope in the rear. The first of these bands is a pretentious military organization. The members of another are the musically inclined cowboys of the ranch, who practiced their art while guarding their cattle far from human ear or habitation. The third number consists of cowgirls, who originally formed an organization to provide the music for the infrequent entertainments on the ranch.

The Miller Brothers invite everybody to witness this parade whether or not they attend the performances of the big amusement enterprise. The life-giving, joy-restoring spirit of prairie and mountain pervades it. It will do you good to see it. It has no like in the annals of amusements.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. C. J. Sipple, of this county, is pastor of the East Bernstadt Methodist church.

Dr. W. F. Vaughan was returned to Somerset by the Methodist Conference at Middlesboro.

Rev. W. E. Arnold, twice pastor of the Methodist church here, has been made presiding elder of the Maysville district.

Over 100 persons signified their intention of joining church at a union revival meeting which opened in the courthouse yard at New Castle.

The movement at Owensboro looking to the uniting of the Frederica-street Presbyterian and the Cumberland Presbyterian churches has failed.

The revival of the Christian church at Nortonville resulted in 50 additions to the church. Rev. S. M. Bernard, formerly of Louisville, held the meeting.

The Christian church at Harlan Court House was dedicated Sunday. Elds. J. C. Elliott, of Sulphur, and J. W. Masters, of Corbin, assisted in the dedicatory services.

A communion set presented to the Congressional Church of Princeton, Mass., in 1767, has just been found in a deep closet under the church organ. The closet had not been used for nearly 100 years.

The pastor's subject for next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church will be, "Secrets of Happy Home Life; What Have You to do With It?" It is of the greatest importance for all, old and young, to know the things that God has revealed to direct our lives in the making of a home, that is the type of the heavenly. For this life to which we are called. A cordial welcome to all.

The revival at the Christian church continues with increased interest and attendance. The house is crowded at each service and frequently numbers are turned away for want of room.

Evangelist Barnes is delivering powerful sermons to rapt audiences, which is bearing fruit in a number of confessions. The song service is especially beautiful and Prof. Leigh is the subject of much praise.—Somerset Journal.

A special from Newton, N. C., says that a sensational murder was committed when Miss Willie Bullinger, aged 19, was stabbed to death by Lon Rader, 21. The girl was seated at the organ playing the closing hymn at Sunday school, when suddenly Rader leaped across several benches and with his pocket knife, stabbed her once in the back and twice in the breast. She died almost instantly. Rader was arrested and is now in the Newton jail. Some months ago he was committed to the State asylum and in his ravings often mentioned Miss Bullinger's name. Recently he was discharged from the hospital as cured. In jail later Rader said he had killed the girl because she was a witch.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. A Paying Investment.

Last Winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. THE United States Circuit Court of Appeals in a decision handed down at Richmond, Va., sustained the opinion of Judge J. C. We are in receipt of a copy of the minutes of the Kentucky Press Association, W. V. Richardson, of the Danville Advocate, secretary. It is a booklet of 50-odd pages filled with the doings of the meeting at Cerulean Springs last June and is of much interest to the press boys. It is also a typographical beauty.

On account of the dullness of a review lesson, the Baptist Sunday school has adopted a special program for next Sunday to take its place. The lives of Samuel, David and Jonathan, and the mistakes of Saul are the subjects that will be discussed, and they have been assigned to different members of the school.

The graded school question is being discussed at length here. The great National contest seems to have been lost sight of entirely as one hears nothing but "graded school." A vote will be taken on the question Oct. 3, when a high old time is expected. We are counseling moderation and hope there will be no cause for calling out the militia.

Mrs. Ella K. Davis, wife of George Davis, died Thursday afternoon at her home on the Liberty pike. She was about 45 years old and a member of the Christian church. She is survived by her husband and six children. Rev. J. Q. Montgomery conducted the funeral services at Green river church, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining.

The Bowling Green Times-Journal says the marriage of Dr. L. G. Singleton to Miss Tempie D. Potter was a quiet but elegant affair. Dr. J. S. At the suburban home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchel Taylor, Miss Grace Taylor was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur G. Colburn, the ceremony being performed by Dr. E. H. Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—you should always keep, and use the Irritant Bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now, late though it seems, says "Put it on the label. If poisons are in your Cough Mixture," Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason, mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must be on the label. And it's not on the label. It is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

GOV. LUKE P. BLACKBURN often said that he did not believe any one who used Crab Orchard water regularly, would ever have typhoid fever. White's Diamond Brand at all drug stores.

WE predict that the largest crowd seen in Stanford for many years will be here next Monday to see Miller Bros.' great 101 Ranch Show. It is the best Wild West show on the road and you should not miss it.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—HON. W. P. Kimball, Congressman from the 7th district, will speak at the court house here Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the interest of the democratic ticket. He is a pleasing speaker and a good crowd should hear him.

THE Baptist church at Crab Orchard will have an all day meeting and grand rally on Sunday, Sept. 27. There will be preaching both morning and afternoon. Plenty of dinner will be furnished on the ground by the ladies of the church. Church roll will be called. A collection will be taken, the proceeds of which will be applied to the repair of the church. A general invitation is extended.

BADLY HURT.—The aged Mr. Tim M. Pennington, who was visiting relatives at Somerset, was badly hurt in a runaway accident Tuesday. A message from his bedside yesterday morning gave the news that he is still unconscious but seemingly some stronger. Dr. Tim W. Pennington and Miss Amanda Goggin are at his bedside. His many friends here hope to hear good news from the splendid old gentleman to-day. We were unable to get the particulars of the runaway.

THE skating rink at Danville was formally opened last Saturday night, more than 600 people attending. Many Stanford people attended and were high in their praises of the delightful time spent. The Danville rink will be open again on Saturday night of this week. A first class brass band will furnish the music and all who attend will have a big time. It is understood that a large number of Stanford people will drive over and enjoy the merry round of pleasure. Hustonville is also billed to send a delegation.

OLD DEMOCRAT.—Mr. James Dudderar, who recently celebrated his 88th birthday, is the oldest democrat in Lincoln county and probably the oldest man. He cast his first vote in 1842 for George Alfred Caldwell for congress and he has been voting the democratic ticket since. In that race, Mr. Caldwell ran against Bryant Y. Owsley and Frank Stone, both of whom were Whigs. Mr. Dudderar is a red hot Bryan man and like other good judges, thinks the Commoner will be elected. If he lives to vote for him, which we hope he will, he will have voted at 66 regular elections. Who can beat his record?

HURT IN RUNAWAY.—Mr. George C. Givens was badly injured by his team of mules running off as he was going home Wednesday afternoon. The animals began running as they were descending the Embury hill and Mr. Givens was thrown out with much force. Two large gashes were cut in the back of his head and a slight concussion of the brain was caused. His condition is not serious but the shock almost shattered his nerves. The mules continued to run and smashing into a buggy containing Mrs. Aiden Rigney and daughter, two wheels were taken off the vehicle and the occupants were hurled out. They both sustained cuts and bruises but are not dangerously wounded.

MR. J. H. COLLIER qualified as administrator of Samuel Lindsay yesterday.

THE enterprising merchants, Cocking & True, of McKinney, are preparing to enlarge their already big store.

DR. ED S. ALCOCK, assignee, has sold the stock of goods at Milledgeville owned by the late F. R. Compton, to Jerry Briscoe, who is now Milledgeville's only merchant.

FOR SALE.—My splendidly improved farm of 180 acres. One of the best farms in the county. On Hustonville pike three miles from Stanford. Call on or phone me. A. J. Rice, Stanford, Ky.

DON'T fail to hear Hon. W. Pres. Kimball, of Lexington, at the court-house Monday morning next at 10 o'clock. He is not only one of the best democrats but one of the best speakers in the State.

CALL on E. T. Pence when you want the best there is on the market. He is headquarters for Old Hickory wagons, Hoosier Drills of all kinds and has, just received a full line of field seeds, timothy clover, etc. Globe & Swifts fertilizers always on hand and if you want a pleasure vehicle of any kind he has them.

"WATER, WATER everywhere, and nor a drop to drink." The first statement is not true, but the latter borders closely on the truth. The supply is so scarce at the water works here that it is turned on only from 6 to 7 in the morning and from 5 to 6 in the afternoon. Thus it will be seen that it behooves our people to be as saving as possible with water or the supply may be exhausted entirely. It also behooves us to be careful about fires. Should one occur now we would be almost completely at the mercy of the flames. These are dry times sure and certain.

AT a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Stanford Water, Light & Ice Co., on the 14th day of September, 1908, the following order was adopted: Whereas the supply of water in the pools is greatly diminished by the continued drouth and because the pools have recently been emptied and cleaned for the purpose of furnishing pure water to customers, it is now ordered that all sprinkling of lawns and streets shall immediately cease; and any one who shall after this date use the water for sprinkling, shall have his supply cut off entirely. The water must be preserved for domestic and fire purposes until sufficient rain falls to renew the sources.

GILBERTS CREEK.—It is very dry and hot and crops are short. John Holtzclaw had a good mule to break his leg and a very valuable horse to kill himself. W. H. Traylor has had considerable work done on his farm this year. Born to the wife of Ivon W. Fish, a nine-pound boy. Will Holtzclaw and brother are cutting their large crop of hemp. It is very good considering the drouth. Mrs. Jim Stanley is improving, we are glad to state. George Lunsford and family, of Rowland, have been visiting relatives here. R. C. Dudderar and family visited Lee Holtzclaw. Os Reynolds, of Cincinnati, and brother, Oscar Reynolds, of Waynesburg, have been visiting John Moser.

Blue Grass Farm For Sale!

I desire to sell privately my splendid Blue Grass Farm of 265 acres, situated in the West End of Lincoln county, one mile North of McKinney. Farm lies on splendid pike as well as on the Q. & C. Railroad. Is 3 1/2 miles from Hustonville and 8 miles from Stanford, the county seat. Farm is well improved and has all necessary buildings. Splendidly fenced and an abundance of water. Convenient to schools and churches and especially convenient for traders and shippers. One of the best stock farms in Lincoln county. J. P. Chandler sold a good work horse to Miss Katie Wentcheze for $100. G. M. Ballard was elected superintendent of the Pine Grove Sunday School. T. F. French, who is an expert singer, conducted the singing in the Sunday school at this place Sunday.

Richard Young, who is driving a team for T. N. Butt, who is running a saw mill near here, says he is driving a horse whose strength, like Sampson's, lies in his hair. He is going to shear his mane off to keep him from breaking single trees and trace chains.

Mr. E. P. Manuel attracted much attention last Sunday by wearing a derby hat to Sunday school, as it was a gift to him provided that he wore it publicly on that day. Some of his closest friends did not know him as he resembled a Cuban cigar maker.

Wm. Boone, Jr., of Somerset, has been with relatives and friends here for the last few days. There is a good joke going on Chas. Enslin, the mill man. After putting in the telephones they were testing them up and down the line, and when they rang him up and inquired who it was, he responded by saying, "dis is me."

Andy Adams and wife, of Garrard, visited his relatives in this section Saturday and Sunday. Pettus Adams, who has been in several of the Western States for the last year, is paying his homefolks a visit and is undecided whether to make this country his home or not. Mrs. Anne Cullman, a German lady, died and was buried in the cemetery at this place last Friday.

It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the Heart and Kidneys. That is all wrong! A weak Stomach, means weak Stomach nerves, always. And this is also true of the Heart and Kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping Stomach, Heart and Kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the falling "inside nerves." Anyway test the Restorative 48 hours. It won't cure so soon as that, but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Passed Examination Successfully.

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. New Stanford Drug Co.

A burglar entered the home of Shelby Gish at Central City and ransacked the house, piled the silverware on a table and took a diamond pin from under the pillow of Mrs. Gish. As the burglar was passing into the hall with his booty Miss Nettie Smith, a member of the family, snatched the diamond from his hand when he turned upon her and dashed her to the floor. He made his escape, leaving the silverware in the yard.
